Polsinelli Represents Opya in Acquisition of Center for Autism Spectrum Therapy

(June 4 2024) Am Law 100 firm Polsinelli congratulates Opya, a leading multidisciplinary early intervention autism therapy provider based in California, on its acquisition of the Center for Autism Spectrum Therapy (CAST), an early intervention autism therapy clinic provider located in Culver City, Calif. The acquisition expands Opya's Southern California presence and adds a clinic-based option to Opya's personalized in-home autism services. Opya specializes in personalized early intervention ABA therapy services for newly diagnosed children aged 18 months up to six years old, in addition to providing accompanying speech and occupational therapies via telehealth.

More information on the transaction can be found here.

Polsinelli's Health Care M&A team for Opya in this transaction was led by Tani Weiner, Co-Chair of our Behavioral Health Law Group, and included Michael Flood, John Wright and Emily Tichenor.
