

Polsinelli Elevates 27 New Shareholders Nationwide

(Nov. 5, 2024) Polsinelli is pleased to announce the election of 27 new shareholders, effective November 1, 2024. The new group of shareholders spans 11 offices, all of the firm's core practice departments, and more than half of them are women and diverse attorneys.

"Congratulations to our new shareholders on this well-deserved promotion. These remarkable attorneys have shown exceptional dedication to client service and have played a significant role in propelling us to one of our most successful years," said Polsinelli Chairman and CEO Chase Simmons. "We are proud to elect one of our most diverse groups ever into the partnership. We are lucky to have such incredible talent and take pride in fostering an environment where everyone can succeed and grow."

Further supporting the firm's continued growth, Polsinelli has added 53 new first-year associates to support clients coast-to-coast. The new associates are located throughout 14 different offices and span 29 practice areas.
