

Polsinelli Represents Landmark Structures in Sale to Cerberus

(Feb. 18, 2025) Polsinelli recently represented the founders and management of Landmark Structures (Landmark), a leading full-service provider of water storage solutions in North America, in a transaction involving the acquisition of Landmark by an affiliate of Cerberus Capital Management (Cerberus), a global leader in alternative investing.

Landmark provides specialized and integrated engineering, construction, installation and maintenance services for water and industrial storage tank projects. This strategic sale allows Landmark to further expand its capabilities and services while continuing to provide premier customer service.

More information about the transaction can be found here.

The Polsinelli deal team was led by Shareholder Robert Sarfatis and included Shareholders William J. Sanders and Virginia Y. Duong.
