

Polsinelli Launches Online Compliance Platform POSSE to Bridge Gap for Franchisors, Franchisees and Other Businesses

(May 5, 2025) Polsinelli is pleased to introduce Polsinelli Online Solutions Services for Everyone \(POSSE\), an online subscription service that equips businesses with comprehensive tools and resources needed to satisfy diverse compliance requirements. Empowering companies with comprehensive resources and state-specific forms and documents for all 50 states and Washington, D.C., POSSE was specifically designed to help franchisors, franchisees and businesses operating without extensive in-house legal resources streamline their employment compliance.

Built by experienced labor and employment attorneys, POSSE delivers a robust set of customizable forms, documents, tools and legal summaries at the federal, state and local levels. It helps employers of all kinds receive compliance information through all stages of employment, from pre-hire through termination.

POSSE builds on the success of Polsinelli Online Solutions for Home Care \(POSH\), Polsinelli's compliance offering tailored to home care providers, by expanding access to a wider range of employers and industries seeking timely and affordable compliance resources.

"We are thrilled to take the success of POSH and offer an industry-agnostic platform to businesses of all sizes," said Angelo Spinola, Executive Director of POSSE. "Whether you're a franchisor or a franchisee, growing your business across state lines or a non-franchise business expanding in your current state, POSSE offers cost-effective, reliable resources and bridges a gap for employers who do not have the in-house support of a compliance team."

POSSE standard subscriptions include:

- Federal employment summaries
- State-specific employment law summaries
- Arbitration agreements
- Background screening materials
