

Polsinelli Wins Innovation Honors at Southeastern Legal Awards

(May 1, 2025) Polsinelli is pleased to announce that it has received multiple recognitions for its innovation efforts at the ALM's Daily Report's 2025 Southeastern Legal Awards. The firm was named the winner in the Best Legal Innovation category, and Home Health, Home Care & Hospice Chair Angelo Spinola was individually honored in the Legal Innovators category.

The Southeastern Legal Awards honor excellence across the legal profession, spotlighting leaders and firms that have significantly advanced the practice of law and positively impacted their clients, communities and peers.

Polsinelli was recognized for its firmwide commitment to innovation, including the launch of its Innovation Department, adoption of Project Fortress and utilization of technologies that have connected hundreds of attorneys to generative artificial intelligence tools. Spinola was recognized for his innovation in home-based care solutions and as the creator and Executive Director of Polsinelli Online Solutions for Home Care \(POSH\), an online compliance platform providing essential resources, information and guidance to home-based care providers.

These wins from the Southeastern Legal Awards come on the heels of another major innovation honor for Polsinelli, with Director of Practice Innovation Larissa Marshall recently named Innovator of the Year in the Individual (Law Firm) category at the 2025 Legalweek Leaders in Tech Law Awards.
