

Polsinelli Completes Dallas Office Move to Prestigious Old Parkland Campus

(June 23, 2025) Polsinelli is thrilled to be the first AmLaw 100 firm to relocate to the prestigious Old Parkland campus in Dallas. The successful completion of the firm's move marks a significant milestone in Polsinelli's ongoing investment in Texas and is an example of the firm's commitment to excellence and growth in the region. Located at 4020 Maple Ave., Suite 300, the new Dallas office is home to 124 attorneys and administrative professionals with ample room to grow and fulfill the firm's ambitious growth goals.

As a renowned address for businesses, foundations and civic leaders, Old Parkland has a rich history and continues to redefine how workspaces foster camaraderie, collaboration and a unique work-life balance—making it an ideal location for Polsinelli.

“We are honored to complete our move into one of the most significant business locations in the Dallas-Fort Worth metro area,” said Brian A. Bullard, Dallas Office Managing Partner and Chair of Polsinelli's Investment Strategies & Capital Solutions Practice. “Old Parkland's intentional design as a counterpoint to the traditional office park aligns perfectly with our own nontraditional approach and philosophy as a law firm. We are excited to join this distinguished community and look forward to the opportunities it will bring for collaboration and connection.”

Polsinelli's new office covers one floor spanning three buildings on the East Campus of Old Parkland: Resolute Tower, Providence Hall and Endeavor Hall. Moving from multiple floors to one contiguous space was a deliberate decision, and the move reflects Polsinelli's dedication to reimagining what a law firm office looks like and how it operates. The office layout has been thoughtfully designed to enhance interaction between attorneys, administrative professionals and clients, consolidating the firm's presence on one continuous floor, a deviation from traditional law firm office spaces.

The Old Parkland campus offers top-tier amenities, including private meeting rooms, one-of-a-kind assembly and gathering spaces, multiple eating venues including fine dining and fast casual, best-in-class health and wellness experiences and support, outdoor terraces and even cocktail lounges. These features, along with the thought-provoking event programming, provide a unique environment that encourages collaboration, connection and discourse among tenants.

Continuing its growth momentum in North Texas, the also firm recently moved into Class-AA space in Fort Worth. In addition to these relocations, Polsinelli's Philadelphia office is moving into its new space doubling its square footage later this summer.
