

Polsinelli Represents Scout in Convertible Note Financing

(Nov. 24, 2025) — Polsinelli is proud to have represented Scout, a Kansas City-based technology company transforming veterinary dental charting, anesthesia planning and monitoring, in closing its $1.29 million convertible note financing. More information can be found here.

Scout's innovative cloud-based platform integrates with electronic medical record systems to help veterinary professionals improve patient outcomes, streamline workflows and deliver exceptional care.

Since its founding in 2021 and MVP launch in 2023, Scout has secured 57 accounts in 80+ locations across the US, England and Australia and is in advanced negotiations with a major partner. The company's roots in the Kansas City region and supportive startup ecosystem, including programs such as LaunchK C, Pipeline and Pure Pitch Rally, have played a key role in its growth.

"Polsinelli has always believed in the power of Kansas City's entrepreneurial ecosystem," said Reece Clark, Shareholder at Polsinelli. "We are proud to stand alongside visionaries like Scout, whose innovation and growth reflect the energy and creativity driving our region forward. We're deeply committed to helping local companies like Scout scale their ideas into national success stories."

The Polsinelli team advising Scout was led by Shareholder Reece Clark and included Shareholders Zack Strange and Laura W. Venn. Additional support was provided by Associate Izzy C. Drake.
