

Polsinelli Represents Potters' Management Team in Sale to Macquarie-Led Consortium

(Dec. 9, 2025) Polsinelli recently represented the management team of Potters in entering into an agreement to be acquired by a consortium led by Macquarie Asset Management from TJC, a private investment firm.

Potters manufactures engineered glass materials that provide performance, safety and sustainability benefits across transportation, infrastructure, industrial and specialty markets. The agreement is expected to support Potters' continued growth and investment across its global operations.

More information on the deal can be found here.

The Polsinelli team advising the management group was led by Shareholder Adam J. Greene and Shareholder Patrick F. Doherty and included Shareholder Elizabeth T. Gross and Jeffrey A. Goldman, Tax Vice Chair Edward J. Hannon as well as Associate Michael Romeo.
