

Fueled by Sustained Growth, Polsinelli Soars in Am Law 100 Rankings

(April 15, 2026) – Polsinelli today announced it has advanced to #55 in the annual Am Law 100 rankings, marking another year of substantial growth and reinforcing the firm’s strong upward trajectory. The ranking reflects a four-place jump from last year and a remarkable 19-position rise over the past decade, putting Polsinelli into the exclusive list of law firms that have achieved this level of growth. The continued climb underscores the firm’s disciplined approach to growth and its focus on delivering value to clients across its national platform.

“This kind of sustained momentum speaks to the strength of our strategy and the way our people execute every day,” said Chase Simmons, CEO & Chairman of Polsinelli. “We have been deliberate about how we grow by focusing on the right practices, the right talent and the evolving needs of our clients. Moving up 19 spots over the past decade is meaningful, but it is also a reflection of the foundation we have built for continued success.”

Polsinelli’s performance in this year’s Am Law 100 highlights ongoing investment in key practices including real estate, finance, health care, middle-market M&A, private equity, technology and life sciences as well as strategic lateral growth and expansion across its offices. The firm continues to prioritize collaboration, innovation and a client-first mindset as it builds on this momentum.
