

Andrew Geha Rejoins Polsinelli Following Leadership Role at Project Fortress

(June 22, 2026) Polsinelli is pleased to announce that Andrew B. Geha has rejoined the firm's Kansas City office as a shareholder in the Corporate Mergers & Acquisitions Practice, bringing a distinctive combination of private practice experience and AI legal operations experience that further enhances the firm's ability to serve clients navigating complex transactions and business growth initiatives.

Geha returns to Polsinelli after serving as Vice President of Legal Operations at Project Fortress, where he helped oversee legal operations and supported the company's rapid growth as an innovator in AI-powered legal technology. His experience working closely with business leaders, legal teams and technology professionals provides valuable insight into the operational and strategic considerations that shape modern corporate transactions.

"Andrew's return reflects the strength of our culture and the value we place on attorneys who understand both the legal and business sides of our clients' challenges," said Chad C. Stout, Chair of Polsinelli's Corporate Mergers & Acquisitions Practice. "His experience leading legal operations within a fast-growing technology company gives him a unique perspective on how transactions, contracting and business strategy intersect. We are thrilled to welcome him back home to the firm."

Geha advises clients on mergers and acquisitions, venture capital investments, dispositions, joint ventures, commercial agreements and other strategic corporate transactions. Drawing on experience gained in both private practice and in-house, he helps clients navigate legal, commercial and execution-related considerations while providing practical guidance aligned with business objectives. Clients value his ability to understand not only the legal framework surrounding transactions, but also the operational realities that influence successful implementation and long-term outcomes.

Geha added: "Returning to Polsinelli feels like coming home. My time at Project Fortress provided invaluable experience working alongside business and legal leaders to solve complex challenges at a high-growth company. I am excited to bring those insights back to the firm and to continue helping clients execute strategic transactions and achieve their business goals as part of Polsinelli's outstanding Corporate and Transactional team."

Geha earned his J.D. and MBA from Washington University in St. Louis and his B.S. from the University of Kansas. He has been recognized in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America for Corporate Law and Mergers and Acquisitions Law.

Polsinelli's Mergers, Acquisitions and Divestitures Practice closes deals. Spanning multiple industries, attorneys in the group complete transactions for private and public companies. The team works collaboratively with in-house personnel and coordinate efforts with clients' investment bankers, local and foreign counsel, accounting firms and other advisers to provide high-caliber, integrated legal advice covering all areas needed for a seamless negotiation and closing process. By taking the time to understand the economic and value-related consequences singular to clients' business transactions, the group works to protect interests and lead in the navigation of a full range of deal options.
