Polsinelli Recognized in Chambers Associate and Vault Surveys for Associate Development and Career Growth

(June 22, 2026) Polsinelli has been recognized in the latest Chambers Associate and Vault Associate surveys, with associates highlighting the firm's commitment to professional development, mentorship and opportunities for meaningful client engagement.

The Chambers Associate survey recognized Polsinelli's culture of mentorship and training, noting the strong formal and informal relationships associates develop throughout the firm. Associates cited the accessibility of firm leadership and the support they receive from mentors, including the firm's program that allows designated mentor time to count toward billable-hour goals. The survey also highlighted professional development resources, department-specific training programs and Trial Academy, which provides attorneys with practical litigation experience and feedback from experienced practitioners.

In the Vault survey, associates reported strong opportunities for substantive work and career development, citing direct client interaction and meaningful responsibility early in their careers. The survey also reflected positive feedback regarding mentorship, collaboration and support from firm leadership.

These survey results reflect Polsinelli's ongoing investment in developing attorneys through hands-on experience, mentorship and training programs that support long-term career growth while helping clients achieve their business objectives.
