

Forbes Names Polsinelli's Sara Begley Among America's Top Lawyers

(Sept. 16, 2026) Polsinelli is pleased to announce that Shareholder Sara A. Begley has been named to Forbes' 2026 America's Top Lawyers list, recognizing leading attorneys from across the country.

Forbes evaluates attorneys through a multi-stage editorial research and analysis process, considering factors including professional reputation, impact on the legal landscape, significant matters, peer and client feedback, thought leadership, pro bono service and community involvement.

A shareholder in Polsinelli's Labor & Employment Practice, Begley is a trusted advisor to global companies facing high-stakes employment litigation, government investigations and internal crises. She is known for her strategic counsel in sensitive matters, including systemic investigations by the EEOC, mass tort claims involving hospital systems and whistleblower actions. She also provides strategic counsel and defense to law firms and in-house legal departments, particularly in whistleblower and discrimination claims.

Begley's recognition by Forbes follows several other honors for her work, including being named North America Labor & Employment Lawyer of the Year at the 2025 IFLR Women in Business Law Awards.
