

Polsinelli Advises Ivy Fertility on Acquisition of Santa Barbara Fertility Center

(Oct. 2, 2026) Polsinelli recently represented longtime client Ivy Fertility in connection with its acquisition of Santa Barbara Fertility Center, continuing a relationship spanning more than five years and a series of transactions involving Ivy Fertility's expanding network of fertility practices.

Ivy Fertility is a national network of fertility clinics focused on comprehensive family-building care. The acquisition of Santa Barbara Fertility Center is part of the organization's continued nationwide expansion and extends its network to 17 practices and 30 locations across nine states.

"We have had the opportunity to work with Ivy Fertility for more than five years across a number of transactions, and that history gives our team a strong understanding of both the organization and the regulatory considerations that accompany its work," said Paul A. Gomez, Co-Chair of Polsinelli's Behavioral Health Practice. "We are pleased to continue supporting Ivy Fertility as it expands its network and its ability to provide fertility care in communities across the country and congratulate it on this latest acquisition."

Led by Gomez and including Associate Matthew T. Lin, the Polsinelli team advised Ivy Fertility on certain transactional matters related to the acquisition and on the health care regulatory aspects of the transaction.
