Polsinelli Advises Ivy Fertility on Six-Clinic Acquisition

(Nov. 16, 2026) Polsinelli recently represented Ivy Fertility, a national network of fertility clinics focused on comprehensive family-building care, in its acquisition of six fertility clinics across St. Louis, Milwaukee and Chicago. The acquisition expands Ivy Fertility's footprint into three new states, with the clinics now operating under the newly launched Sage Reproductive Center brand.

The transaction builds on Ivy Fertility's continued nationwide expansion and Polsinelli's longstanding relationship with the organization, spanning more than five years and a series of acquisitions. Earlier this year, Polsinelli also advised Ivy Fertility on its acquisition of Santa Barbara Fertility Center.

Backed by Ivy Fertility's physician-led model and established administrative, operational and technological infrastructure, Sage Reproductive Center allows physicians to focus on delivering individualized care while providing patients with the resources and support of a national fertility organization.

Polsinelli's Behavioral Health Co-Chair Paul A. Gomez led the team in this matter, which also included Associate Matthew T. Lin and drew on support from numerous other attorneys across the firm.

More about the transaction can be found here.
