

Adam H. Brown

SHAREHOLDER

he / him / his

Chicago, IL | 312.873.3643

abrown@polsinelli.com

Adam represents lenders and borrowers in sophisticated real estate finance transactions, including the origination, acquisition and disposition of balance sheet, securitized, syndicated, mezzanine, preferred equity and corporate loans secured by real estate projects across all asset types. Adam regularly represents clients in structuring transactions involving multiple layers of subordinate debt and negotiating intercreditor, co-lender and participation agreements. He also has substantial construction financing experience and regularly represents investors in the acquisition and sale of all types of properties.

Education

- New York Law School (J.D., magna cum laude, 2005)
 - John Marshall Harlan Scholar; Executive Notes Editor for NYLS Law Review
- New York University Schack Institute of Real Estate (Graduate Certificate, 2011)
 - Real Estate Finance
- Boston College (B.A., 1998)
 - Economics

Bar Admissions

- Illinois
- New York, 2007

Recognition

- Federal Law Clerk to the Honorable Patricia Minaldi, Western District of Louisiana

Capabilities

- Real Estate Development
- Real Estate Finance
- Real Estate
- Real Estate Transactions