As a shareholder in the Corporate and Transactional practice, Amanda Terr focuses on a variety of complex business transactions and corporate matters, counseling companies across a range of industries in their strategic transactions and operational matters. Her experience includes multijurisdictional corporate restructurings, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), commercial contract negotiations and domestic and international corporate formation and governance matters.

In her M&A practice, Amanda represents both buyers and sellers, private equity and strategic parties, domestically and internationally. She counsels clients in various industries, including digital media, retail and consumer goods, healthcare, energy, transportation, and software and technology. She also assists operating companies in contracting, financing, employment, IP, governance and general legal matters. Amanda takes a client-centered approach in her practice, ensuring each client's unique needs are wholly understood, discussed and achieved through the implementation of innovative legal and business strategies.

In her spare time, Amanda can be found riding her horse in US Eventing competitions and swimming laps with the Dallas Aquatic Masters swim team.
