

Angelica “Angie” Bolton-Conrad

SENIOR PARALEGAL

St. Louis, MO | 314.552.6841
aconrad@polsinelli.com

“Angie” Bolton-Conrad is a senior paralegal who supports attorneys in defending clients across the country with toxic tort, products and premises liability and personal injury claims. Angie draws on her experience in all phases of litigation to handle analysis of initial complaints, drafting responsive pleadings and motions, fact investigation, discovery management (including analysis of medical records, employment files and other documents to determine strategy for case proceedings) and trial support.

Before joining Polsinelli, Angie was a police officer and paralegal in the United States Air Force and transitioned to a civilian paralegal after leaving the Air Force in 2000. She has been in the legal field for more than two decades and has a strong litigation background and extensive trial experience.

Education

- Kaplan University (B.S.)

Memberships

- St. Louis Paralegal Association, 2004-Present
  - Former Vice President
  - Former Secretary
  - Former Director
  - Former President-Elect
  - Former President
  - Former Membership Chair
  - Former Newsletter Editor and Legal Assistants’ Day Chair

Recognition

- Recipient of the St. Louis YWCA’s “Leaders in the Workplace” Award, 2011
- Recipient of the St. Louis Paralegal Association’s “Paralegal of the Year” Award, 2011

Capabilities

- Products Liability & Toxic & Mass Tort
- Litigation

Matters

---

- Successfully represented a hospice company in an eight-day arbitration filed against 50% owner for breach of contract, defamation and other tortious activity taken against the company. Awarded attorney's fees and expenses in addition to a seven-figure award.