

Blake Stocke

ASSOCIATE

St. Louis, MO | 314.622.6645

BStocke@Polsinelli.com

Blake Stocke is committed to helping businesses and individuals identify practical solutions to resolve their tax matters while meeting their business objectives. Blake advises clients on the tax consequences of various corporate and business transactions including corporate and partnership formations, mergers, acquisitions and dispositions. He advises clients throughout all phases of a dispute, including audit, administrative appeals and judicial proceedings.

Prior to joining Polsinelli, Blake worked in the tax department at a Big 4 accounting firm where he assisted investment funds, partnerships, and corporations in determining income tax liability.

Education

- Saint Louis University School of Law (J.D., 2022)
- Butler University (M.A., 2018)
- Butler University (B.S., cum laude, Dean's List, 2016)

Bar Admissions

- Missouri

Recognition

- Elected to the Order of the Saint Louis University School of Law's Woolsack Honors Society

Capabilities

- Tax

Publications

July 14, 2025

The “One Big, Beautiful Bill” — What You Need to Know

August 7, 2023

IRS Identifies Monetized Installment Sales as a Listed Transaction

April 18, 2023

Beware, the IRS is Coming: More IRS Audits to Focus on High-Net Worth Individuals and Passthrough Entities