

Candice J. Springfield

PARALEGAL
she / her / hers

Kansas City, MO | 816.572.4428
cspringfield@polsinelli.com

Candice Springfield supports the Litigation practice with an emphasis on coordinating communications with medical experts and clients. Her responsibilities include case preparation, including conducting thorough legal research, managing complex medical records and other department support. With strong background in medical terminology and a keen understanding of the legal intricacies surrounding healthcare litigation, she ensures that every case is handled with precision and care.

Before joining Polsinelli, Candice worked in the healthcare field for twenty plus years. She has been in the legal field for over three years. Known for her professionalism, energetic personality and ability to thrive in high-pressure environments, Candice is committed to maintaining the highest standards of legal support, always ensuring that attorneys and clients receive the best possible service.

Education

- Kansas City Kansas Community College (Paralegal Certificate)

Memberships

- Kansas City Paralegal Association

Capabilities

- Health Care Litigation
- Litigation