

Carolyn Hall

SENIOR PARALEGAL

Charleston, SC | 854.223.6179

cohall@polsinelli.com

Carolyn Hall supports the Health Care litigation practice, with a focus on reimbursement disputes involving both government and private payers. She has been in the legal field for over 30 years and has a strong health care litigation background involving matters in federal and state courts, arbitration and the administrative appeals process.

As a senior paralegal, Carolyn's responsibilities include managing complex litigation matters, drafting and preparing pleadings for filing in various courts and other legal support.

Prior to joining Polsinelli, Carolyn worked as a senior paralegal at a global Am100 law firm in North Carolina.

Education

- University of North Carolina at Charlotte (B.S.B.A., 1993)
 - Business Management
- Meredith College (Paralegal Certificate, 1993)

Capabilities

- Health Care Litigation
- Health Care