Cindy Thomas brings deep experience to a wide range of commercial real estate matters, guiding clients through every stage of complex transactions, from structuring and negotiation to closing.

Cindy counsels clients on the acquisition, financing and sale of assets across diverse sectors, including health care, multifamily housing, senior living and hospitality. She has significant experience representing both lenders and investors across the capital stack, advising on senior and mezzanine financing, preferred equity and other structured investments. Her work spans virtually all asset types, with a focus on health care-related transactions.

Cindy represents a broad client base that includes commercial banks, private equity sponsors, health care operators and owners and privately held businesses.
