Colleen Guinn provides comprehensive representation and strategic counsel to a variety of health care providers, including hospitals and health systems, physician and specialty practice groups, individual health care professionals, and home health agencies. Working closely with Polsinelli's team of seasoned health care attorneys, Colleen develops legal solutions for clients' challenges in an ever-changing health care industry.

Colleen regularly handles licensing and reimbursement issues at the state and federal levels. Her work includes detailed analysis and insight for clients looking to implement both traditional and innovative health care models. She regularly assists clients with understanding Medicare and Medicaid coverage, billing, and payment, and is passionate about helping providers get paid and maintain compliance. Colleen has experience representing hospitals in Medicare appeals before the Provider Reimbursement Review Board.

Prior to joining Polsinelli, Colleen worked as a paralegal focused on representing clients in all stages of the patent litigation process and as an intern in the U.S. Senate. While in law school, Colleen also worked as a legal extern for a large public health system.
