

Corporate & Transactional

Polsinelli's Corporate and Transactional practice is built for the middle market — guiding companies and investors from growth and acquisition to exit and beyond.

Consistently ranked among the most active M&A and private equity firms in the U.S. by Mergermarket and PitchBook, we combine national deal volume with disciplined execution and senior-level attention to every engagement.

We manage the transactions and strategic corporate matters that shape a company's trajectory: platform and bolt-on acquisitions, strategic sales, recapitalizations, governance and ongoing outside general counsel support. Senior lawyers stay engaged; deal teams keep deals moving; and integrated subject matter and industry counsel ensures decisions align with long-term business goals. We get deals done — and we stay to help them succeed.

Many of our client relationships span decades and multiple transactions, reflecting the continuity of our work across sponsors, portfolio companies and operating businesses. We advise middle market enterprises at inflection points — acquisitions, expansion, generation succession, governance transitions and strategic exits — and remain engaged as long-term corporate counsel as those businesses evolve.

Our experience spans health care, technology, financial services, manufacturing and industrial services, consumer-facing businesses and real estate-adjacent sectors. Across industries, clients turn to us for practical judgment, expert guidance, efficient staffing and steady counsel through the full arc of the business lifecycle.
