

Cris C. Derendorf

PARALEGAL

Los Angeles, CA | 310.203.5343

cderendorf@polsinelli.com

Cris C. Derendorf is a paralegal who supports the Litigation Department which emphasis on Products Liability and Toxic and Mass Tort matters. Her responsibilities include supporting the legal team with managing all phases of litigation lifecycle, including case handling, all levels of discovery and pre-trial work.

Before joining Polsinelli, Cris worked for a National Coordinating Counsel law firm with over 15 years of experience focusing on products liability, premises and complex asbestos litigation for a Fortune 100 company. Responsibilities included handling highly confidential material, managing voluminous document productions for complex litigation matters and expert discovery with the ability of establishing and maintaining good working relationships with clients, experts and counsel.

Education

- Esquire College (Paralegal Certificate)
- University of Las Vegas Nevada
 - Upward Bound Program

Memberships

- National Notary Association – Active California Notary Commission

Languages

- Spanish

Capabilities

- Products Liability & Toxic & Mass Tort
- Litigation