As a shareholder in the Government Contracts practice, Dan Petkoff advises clients on procurement and compliance matters. He assists on a wide variety of government contracting issues, including negotiations, contract compliance, disclosures, bid protests, requests for equitable adjustment, claims, contract pricing and contractor disputes.

As part of his government contracts practice, Dan also advises clients regarding labor and employment disputes, collective bargaining agreement negotiations and compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Prior to joining Polsinelli, Dan was an Assistant General Counsel for a publicly traded company that provides commercial aircraft and military vehicle maintenance, repair and overhaul services, parts distribution and supply chain management support.

Before attending law school, Dan worked as a Legislative Correspondent and Field Representative for a U.S. Congressman.
