dmyers@polsinelli.com

A skillful litigation paralegal supporting the Products Liability Life Sciences team, Doug Myers brings to bear considerable professional experience and perspective from not only his years in the legal field but also from his background in television and journalism. His responsibilities include research, document review and delivery, deposition and trial support and overall case organization. An effective and efficient team member, Doug strives to create the conditions in which the attorneys and the rest of the team are in the best possible position to maximize service of the case and client.

Prior to joining Polsinelli, Doug worked for a top DC law firm and for both plaintiff and defense firms in Denver, Colorado. In addition to Products Liability, he has considerable experience in employment law, contracts, medical malpractice and toxic torts. He transitioned to law following a successful television production career, taking advantage of the considerable crossover skills shared by journalism and the legal field.
