Drew Greaves focuses his practice on financial services litigation. He represents banks, mortgage servicers, fintech companies and other financial institutions in complex litigation matters. Drew's practice focuses on defending clients in federal and state courts across a wide range of disputes, including consumer finance claims, regulatory investigations, class actions and enforcement proceedings.

Earlier in his career, Drew was Associate Counsel at U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, where he advised senior government officials on a wide range of issues and litigated extensively in federal courts around the country. Prior to that, he served as an Honors Attorney for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and as a judicial law clerk on the Supreme Court of Missouri.
