

Emma G. Robison

LEGAL CLERK

St. Louis, MO | 314.622.6615

erobison@polsinelli.com

Emma Robison supports Polsinelli attorneys on matters across the health care industry, assisting providers as they navigate business and legal challenges. She works with hospitals, health systems and other health care organizations. Her work focuses on health care alignment and organization, where she assists with matters involving transactions and strategic business arrangements.

Before joining Polsinelli, Emma gained experience as a legal intern at SSM Health, a Catholic, not-for-profit, fully integrated health system, where she supported transactional work.

Education

- Saint Louis University School of Law (J.D., 2026)
 - Concentration in Health Law
 - Journal of Health Law and Policy, Managing Editor
- Washington University in St. Louis (B.A., 2022)
 - Anthropology
 - Medicine and Society, Lambda Alpha Honor Society, Gamma Phi Beta

Recognition

- Excellence in Journals Award, Journal of Health Law and Policy
- Academic Excellence Awards in Legal Analysis, Research and Communication and Seminar: Law and Short Stories

Capabilities

- Health Care