

Evan M. Knobloch

SHAREHOLDER

Chicago, IL | 312.463.6232
eknobloch@polsinelli.com

Evan is a shareholder at Polsinelli, practicing in the firm's Corporate and Transactional Group. He focuses his practice on M&A, strategic transactions and general counsel representation.

Evan represents privately-held companies, executives and investors, including private equity groups, investor groups and family offices. He represents strategic and financial clients in transactions ranging from millions of dollars to more than $1 billion.

Evan's practice spans the full range of transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, minority investments, leveraged buyouts, commercial transactions, debt and equity financings, executive arrangements and governance matters. He also acts as general counsel to closely-held businesses and private equity platforms, providing "deal-level priority" for day-to-day guidance.

Anchored in a commitment to uncompromising client service, clients rely on Evan's thoughtful counsel focused on achieving both immediate and long-term objectives. He is highly accessible, responsive and efficient in his work and dedication to clients' goals.

Education

- University of Michigan Law School (J.D., 2009)
- Concordia College (B.A., cum laude, 2006)
 - Philosophy and Political Science

Bar Admissions

- Illinois
- North Dakota

Capabilities

- Private Equity - Mergers & Acquisitions
- Commercial Contracts & Transactions
- Private Equity
- Corporate & Transactional
- Mergers, Acquisitions & Divestitures