Jennifer Prieto is a litigator who focuses her practice on toxic tort and product liability defense. She represents clients in complex litigation matters and develops strategic, efficient solutions aligned with their business objectives.

Jennifer's experience includes managing high-exposure disputes from pre-litigation strategy through trial, with particular emphasis on defending claims involving alleged toxic exposure and product-related injuries. She works collaboratively with clients and legal teams to assess risk, develop case strategy, and pursue favorable resolutions through motion practice, negotiation, or trial.

Known for her strategic and team-oriented approach, Jennifer provides steady advocacy throughout the litigation lifecycle. Clients value her ability to analyze complex factual and legal issues, anticipate challenges, and advance practical solutions that protect their interests.
