Karime advises clients from Brazil and Latin America on complex commercial real estate and corporate transactions across the United States, while also representing U.S.-based investors and companies in domestic and cross-border matters. A dual-qualified attorney (U.S. and Brazil) originally from São Paulo, she is recognized for her ability to bridge legal systems and business cultures with clarity and precision. She represents a diverse range of clients—including financial institutions, developers, lenders and family offices—with a strategic, business-oriented approach. Her experience spans the full spectrum of commercial real estate transactions, including acquisitions, sales, development, financing and joint ventures.

Her practice also encompasses complex corporate structures and investment platforms involving multiple jurisdictions. As part of her real estate and lending work, she prepares and issues multi-jurisdictional legal opinions, ensuring precision and consistency in sophisticated financing and corporate transactions.

Karime's global perspective, strategic mindset and commitment to excellence make her a trusted advisor for clients expanding their footprint in the United States and navigating sophisticated cross-border transactions.
