

Kimberly N. Simmons

ASSOCIATE

Washington, D.C. | 202.626.8395

knsimmons@polsinelli.com

Kim Simmons diligently seeks to find practical solutions to complex corporate financial transactions. She works with seasoned Polsinelli attorneys to analyze each transaction matter to develop a strategic approach to representation based on the client's immediate and long-term business and operational goals. Kim helps deliver a range of legal services during the life cycle of the client's business—from selecting the appropriate choice of entity through an exit strategy.

Kim also focuses on investment management, with an emphasis on the formation and operation of private investment funds, including SBIC Funds, and acts for individual and institutional investors in connection with their investments in private investment funds. Kim is experienced in SBIC Regulatory Compliance.

Education

- University of Richmond School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2020)
 - Lead Articles Editor, Public Interest Law Review
- George Mason University (B.A., summa cum laude, 2017)
 - Integrative Studies

Bar Admissions

- Maryland, 2020
- District of Columbia, 2022

Memberships

- Maryland State Bar Association

Recognition

- CALI Award for Academic Excellence in Corporate Compliance

Capabilities

- Securities & Corporate Finance
- Investment Management & Funds
- SBIC Regulatory & Finance
- Corporate & Transactional

Publications

April 17, 2026

Congress Passes SBIC Reform Bill Expanding Private Capital and Leverage Limits

March 31, 2026

In-House Influence Podcast

Co-Host, In-House Influence Podcast, Washington, D.C.

September 13, 2023

What Do You Mean the Corporate Transparency Act Applies to My Business?

2023 Annual Business Law Institute

September 13, 2023

Banking Crisis Update

2023 Annual Business Law Institute

July 21, 2023

SBA New Final Rule Establishes Accrual SBIC License and Implements Significant Changes to SBIC Regulations