Maverick Flowers is a seasoned corporate attorney supporting clients with complex business transactions and corporate matters. With a keen focus on providing comprehensive legal services, Maverick collaborates closely with the firm's team of corporate attorneys to deliver tailored solutions to both corporate and nonprofit clients. His experience spans a wide range of areas, including:

- Transactional: Maverick advises clients on various corporate and business transactions, including corporate and partnership formations, private foundations, mergers, acquisitions and dispositions. He actively participates in the preparation and negotiation of comprehensive deal documents, ensuring that each transaction aligns with the client's immediate and long-term business goals.
- Nonprofit and Tax-Exempt Organizations: Maverick leverages his extensive experience to advise nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations on a variety of legal matters. Maverick is well-versed in structuring and facilitating joint ventures involving nonprofit organizations. He provides strategic counsel to navigate the complexities of these collaborations, ensuring that the interests of all parties are safeguarded while maximizing the potential for mutual benefit and mission alignment. With a focus on industries critical to societal well-being, Maverick brings valuable experience in healthcare, schools and universities, NIL collectives and affordable housing. He understands the unique legal and regulatory challenges facing organizations in these sectors and tailors his legal advice to address their specific needs and objectives. Whether it involves compliance with healthcare regulations, navigating educational governance structures or facilitating affordable housing development, Maverick offers comprehensive legal solutions to support the success of clients in these industries.
- Tax and Estate Planning: Drawing on his background in tax law, Maverick excels in structuring tax-efficient asset protection plans and estate plans for high-net-worth individuals. He works closely with privately held entities and family business owners to implement viable business succession plans that safeguard their assets and interests.

In addition to his legal practice, Maverick brings valuable experience gained from his previous roles, including serving as a law clerk for the Honorable R. David Proctor in the Federal District Court Northern District of Alabama. He has also held internships in prominent governmental institutions, such as the United States Senate and as a Legal
