

Litigation

Polsinelli approaches litigation with our clients and their business goals as our primary focus. We approach each case as unique and create partnerships with our clients to devise a litigation strategy from the outset of the matter that is laser-focused and aimed at achieving the most efficient and effective resolution. Polsinelli's litigators and trial lawyers pride themselves on delivering a business-minded approach to litigation. Our litigators collaborate with in-house legal and business teams to ensure that our client's financial and legal objectives are at the forefront of every strategic decision.

Whether through early case assessment, alternative dispute resolution, aggressive motion practice, focused discovery, or, when it serves our client's objectives, trial and appeal, we strive to obtain the best results that are driven by, and consistent with, our client's business objectives. Our Polsinelli litigators have the skills and experience necessary to handle the types of high exposure and bet-the-company litigation that have a direct impact on your company's bottom line. If we take a matter to trial, we draw on a deep bench of seasoned trial lawyers who draw on the subject matter insight of our regulatory, business and other colleagues, our state of the art technology, as well as many other resources across our firm's national platform. Every strategic decision is made with an understanding of the delicate balance between reducing legal spending while accomplishing our clients' legal and business goals.

We represent publicly-owned and privately-held companies, as well as for-profit and not-for-profit organizations which span multiple industries, including real estate, banking, chemical, finance, energy, health care and life sciences, private equity, manufacturing, telecommunications, pharmaceutical, technology and transportation. We know our clients are at the forefront of innovation in their industries, and we bring that same focus on innovation to our litigation strategies.

Polsinelli's attorneys handle cases in state and federal courts and ADR forums across the United States and many foreign jurisdictions. Judges and other lawyers know and respect our litigators; they know we will be well prepared and ready to take the case through conclusion but also that we will seek out all opportunities to reasonably settle to our client's advantage. With coast-to-coast coverage and cutting-edge litigation support technologies, we give our clients a strategic advantage when facing adversaries. Our litigators have achieved many honors and recognitions, including:

- Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business
- BTI Litigation Outlook
