Clients rely on Madeleine to analyze each corporate transaction matter to develop strategic solutions for their immediate and long-term business and operational goals. She counsels clients in all aspects of the life cycle of the client's business, from selecting the appropriate choice of entity to exit strategy. Madeleine's practice is focused largely on the formation, structuring, operation and management of private investment vehicles, and advising institutional investors, family offices and other limited partners in evaluating, negotiating and managing their investments.

Madeleine's corporate transactional experience also lends itself to her commercial transaction practice, where she acts as a strategic partner to her clients on all aspects of commercial transactions. Madeleine negotiates and drafts a wide variety of complex commercial contracts on behalf of clients in a variety of industries including:

- Mobility and Vehicle Use
- Water Rights, Supply and other Transactions
- Manufacturing (Chemical, Automotive, Medical, Food, Textile and other OEM)
- Transportation and Logistics
- Healthcare
- Technology/SaaS

Madeleine's experience partnering with clients on their day-to-day commercial legal needs has given her a strength in interpreting and predicting clients' needs and helps her to solve problems for clients on a contractual level before they ever arise, enabling them to manage risk and achieve their business goals.
