

Michael D. O'Keefe

LEGAL CLERK

Kansas City, MO | 816.572.4542

mokeefe@polsinelli.com

Michael O'Keefe supports the firm's work on intellectual property disputes with a thoughtful, detail-oriented approach to complex legal and factual issues.

He contributes to matters involving patents, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property rights, focusing on understanding the issues at hand and helping develop practical strategies aligned with clients' objectives.

Working collaboratively with colleagues, Michael conducts legal research, analyzes key issues and helps develop clear, well-supported arguments. He is committed to responsive, thorough work and to building his experience in intellectual property litigation while helping the team protect and enforce clients' intellectual property rights.

Education

- University of Kansas School of Law (J.D., Dean's Fellow, 2026)
 - Staff Editor, Kansas Law Review
- University of Missouri-Columbia (B.S., 2023)
 - Biology/Biological Sciences

Capabilities

- Intellectual Property
- Intellectual Property Litigation