Noor Kalkat advises clients on a wide range of privacy, cybersecurity and technology-related matters.

Noor counsels organizations on compliance with international, federal and state privacy laws, including the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

Her practice includes supporting clients in complex technology transactions, intellectual property protection and licensing, software and data licensing and usage rights, and other commercial agreements involving emerging technologies. Noor also guides clients through cybersecurity incidents, providing strategic advice on breach response, regulatory obligations and remediation.

Before joining Polsinelli, Noor worked in the privacy and compliance office at the University of California, San Francisco Medical Center, where she gained experience navigating privacy issues in the healthcare and life sciences sectors.
