

Private Equity

Polsinelli's Private Equity practice advises private equity sponsors, portfolio companies and management teams in all aspects of the private investment life cycle. With a team of more than 120 attorneys, we have represented hundreds of private equity funds and portfolio companies in transactions worth several billions of dollars.

Members of our Private Equity practice advise every stage of the private investment life cycle from fund formation, investment and M&A activity, debt financings (including private credit and bank financings), equity financings, recapitalizations, special situations, and daily counsel to dispositions and exits. Our cross-disciplinary and business-minded attorneys leverage their unique skills to help clients take the next step in growing their businesses.

Our attorneys have advised clients across most industries comprising the S&P 500 and are equipped to understand and navigate industry-specific complexities. Polsinelli has substantial experience in the health care, real estate and technology industries with the majority of our M&A transactions ranging from $25 million to $1 billion in enterprise value.
