Samuel Patterson III represents clients in commercial litigation matters, including disputes involving companies and financial institutions. He assists clients throughout the litigation process by analyzing complex legal and factual issues.

Samuel draws on his prior experience in the financial services industry, giving him a practical perspective when assessing the business operations, financial relationships, and regulatory considerations that shape business disputes.

During law school, Samuel served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Debra M. Brown of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi.
