

Sarah C. Banning

PARALEGAL
she / her / hers

Kansas City, MO | 816.572.4713
SBanning@Polsinelli.com

Sarah supports the Pro Bono practice with an emphasis on family treatment court. Her responsibilities include consistent contact with caseworkers and treatment providers regarding clients' participation in community services, managing communication with clients and service providers, meeting with family support teams to ensure client participation in the Family Treatment Court and other department support.

Before joining Polsinelli, Sarah worked as a childcare educator and then as a paralegal for another local firm. She has been in the legal field for over a decade and has a strong family court background. She routinely assists in juvenile and family court matters within the Jackson County Family Court.

Education

- Johnson County Community College (A.A.)
 - Associate of Arts – Paralegal
- Johnson County Community College (Certificate in Paralegal Studies)

Recognition

- Pro Bono Trailblazer
- Pro Bono Champion

Capabilities

- Litigation