Savannah Shepherd focuses her practice on health care litigation. She represents clients in the health care industry, including hospitals, physicians and other health care providers, in managed care disputes and litigation in federal and state court, as well as in arbitration proceedings.

Savannah works diligently to support clients in navigating complex legal challenges. She is experienced in drafting legal documents, conducting legal research and assisting in the preparation and strategy for trials and settlement negotiations. Savannah is committed to providing high-quality legal services and demonstrates a proactive approach to problem-solving in the health care space. She actively stays updated on the evolving landscape of health care regulations and litigation trends, ensuring that clients receive informed and effective counsel.

With an extensive background in languages and writing, Savannah enjoys breaking down complex topics and presenting them to clients in an accessible way. Savannah's priority is making clients feel seen and heard throughout the course of their representation. Savannah's approach to representing clients emphasizes responsiveness, diligence and crafting creative solutions to achieve clients' goals efficiently.
