Shundra Crumpton Manning's practice focuses on representing businesses and organizations in complex commercial litigation matters and disputes. She works with Polsinelli attorneys to develop outcome-driven litigation strategies aligned with each client's business goals. Shundra provides guidance and advocacy in all phases of a dispute, from pre-litigation negotiations through trial. She is committed to understanding clients' litigation goals and business objectives to provide the best representation for each unique matter.

Shundra has vigorously defended and obtained complete victories for numerous Fortune 500 companies in class action and MDL matters involving a variety of privacy-related issues, including data breaches allegedly resulting in personal identifiable information and protected health information disclosure, pixel and other web tracking cases involving alleged violations of state and federal wiretap laws and the Video Privacy Protection Act, and other actions related to privacy and cybersecurity.

Matters

- Facilitated several favorable settlements for a Fortune 500 manufacturing company in product liability matters involving HVAC units, including a settlement where my client contributed zero dollars while co-defendants contributed thousands of dollars.
- Received a grant of summary judgment for a Fortune 500 manufacturing company in a disability discrimination matter.
- Successfully managed a docket of interpleader matters for a top-tier insurance company by facilitating pre-litigation agreements among claimants and achieving grants of motions to deposit and for dismissal.
- Received final approval of a class action settlement involving tort-based claims against a waste management company.
- Received grants of motions to stay and motions for summary judgment in various class actions involving a mortgage servicing company facing claims under the FDCPA and state variations of the statute. Successfully defended multiple victims of domestic violence in order of protection hearings. During each hearing, I gave an opening statement, performed direct and cross-examinations, and introduced evidence.

- Served on the deposition team for multidistrict litigation involving a manufacturing company. In this role, I took over 20 fact witness depositions.
- Drafted a privacy policy for a mid-size company that included language needed to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act.
- Counseled a sporting goods company on the use of cookie banner disclosures and the potential implications of the California Privacy Rights Act on future cookie disclosure requirements.
