Taylor Maun's strong work ethic, professionalism and passion for serving others complement her legal practice and ability to help clients achieve their goals. She believes that understanding the long-term goals of corporate clients is critical to effectively meeting their immediate needs. Taylor's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, divestitures and reorganizations, joint venture transactions, capital raises, and outside general counsel matters. Her experience representing health care organizations in complex transactions allows her to anticipate the unique challenges faced by clients in this industry. Taylor works with clients in various stages of growth across a range of industries, including health care, technology and food service, to help them navigate their operational needs, strategic partnerships, and ultimate acquisitions and divestitures.
