Tracy Jacobson is a trusted advisor to companies entering into complex business transactions and provides clients with immediate and long-term solutions to various matters. She focuses her practice on business transactions and investment matters, including middle-market corporate transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, divestitures and joint ventures.

Tracy supports clients through all phases of the business life cycle with extensive experience assisting clients with risk management and difficult compliance issues as they grow through acquisition in heavily regulated industries such as health care and data privacy.

Prior to joining Polsinelli, Tracy served as the Chief Legal and Compliance Officer of a leading PE-sponsored Dental Support Organization where she led their legal acquisition strategy resulting in high-value integration of over 40 targets a year across 10 states. Experienced in the healthcare industry, Tracy is also proficient in creating internal compliance functionality to meet federal, state and local regulations.
