Tyler Anders focuses his practice on data protection, privacy and security. He is a Certified Information Privacy Professional in the U.S. (CIPP/US).

Tyler advises clients of all sizes and industries through privacy and data security matters, including matters involving data privacy regulations, cybersecurity requirements and data breach incidents. He regularly defends clients in class-action litigation regarding a range of privacy issues. His work also includes pre-incident response training and post-incident support for clients dealing with issues like ransomware and business email compromises. He guides clients on their notification obligations to state and federal regulators in compliance with various data breach statutes and contractual requirements. He also has experience with regulatory investigations from both state and federal agencies.
